Feeding South Dakota is a proud member of Feeding America, the nation's largest domestic hunger-relief organization. Feeding America is a network of 200 member food banks that engages our country in the fight to end hunger.

Important Reminders

Please place your order 48 hours prior to your delivery date or pickup date.

Contact the warehouse at 348.2689 if you have any changes to your scheduled pickup date.

CLOSED SEPTEMBER 4

AGENCY RELATIONS NOTES

Thank you for partnering with Feeding South Dakota in our mission to end hunger. In South Dakota:

13.7 percent of individuals in South Dakota live at or below the poverty line ($24,003 is the income threshold for a family of four).

One out of every eight individuals in South Dakota is food insecure.

One in every six children under the age of 18 is at risk of going hungry in South Dakota (estimated 39,030 children).

More than 40 percent of residents living in the counties of Corson, Ziebach, Oglala, and Lakota are considered persons in poverty (Corson Co. 47.4 percent, Ziebach Co. 47.1 percent, Oglala Lakota Co. 44.2 percent, Todd Co. 44 percent)

43 percent of South Dakota school-aged children qualify for free and reduced meals.

We have access to up to date hunger statistics for your counties. Please contact me at diane@feedingsouthdakota.org if you are interested in more detailed information.

Diane Briest, Agency Relations Coordinator

Hunger Facts

Feeding South Dakota supplies more than 2,900 food boxes to hungry seniors each month through their Commodity Supplemental Food Program.

CSFP

The Commodity Supplemental Food Program is a USDA food program for people over 60 years of age that are at or below 130 percent of the Federal Poverty Income guidelines. Sioux Falls and Pierre Food Banks operate this program, working with partner agencies to distribute the box of food once a month.
