What are Mobile Food Distributions?

Mobile Food Distributions allow us to go where hunger is, instead of hunger having to find us. Distribution sites are hosted by a Feeding South Dakota partner and are set up drive-through style, where volunteers load grocery boxes pre-packed with nutritious foods directly into the vehicles of those utilizing the program.

Why volunteer at Mobile Food Distributions?

By giving your time, you become a crucial part of the effort to ensure nutritious meals reach those facing hunger. Join us in making a tangible impact, one packed box at a time.

*This institution is an equal opportunity provider.
