

FACTS ABOUT HUNGER AND FEEDING SOUTH DAKOTA

Hunger in the United States:

- Food insecurity is present in every county in America; food Insecurity exists when individuals' access to enough food is limited by a lack of money and other resources.
- An estimated 49 million Americans, or 16.1%, are food insecure, while nearly 100 billion pounds of food go to waste in our country every year.
- Over 16 million children live in food insecure households.
- 21% of rural households with children are food insecure, over 1 million households.
- 74% of all Feeding America client households have annual household incomes at or beneath the poverty line.
- 65% of households with seniors served by Feeding America have to choose between buying food and paying for utilities or medical care.

Hunger in South Dakota:

- 14.6% of individuals live at or below the poverty line.
- One out of every 8 individuals in South Dakota is food insecure.
- The percentage is significantly higher for children under the age of 18 – one in every 5 children is at risk of going hungry.
- Three counties in South Dakota are the poorest in the United States. A total of four South Dakota counties are in the top ten United States counties with the highest poverty rates.
- South Dakota has 8 of the nation's 30 poorest counties.
- Nearly 40% of the state's school-aged children qualify for free and reduced meals.
- 19.2% of its citizens 50 and older live below the poverty line.

Impact of Feeding South Dakota:

- Serves all 66 counties in South Dakota.
- Provides food for an estimated 190,000 people every year.
- Nearly 40% of those served by Feeding South Dakota are considered to be a working poor family.
- Throughout the state, pantries, on-site feeding programs and shelters served by Feeding South Dakota report that the average monthly income is $970 per household.
- Almost half of the individuals served by Feeding South Dakota are children and infants.
- Distributed 12.3 million pounds of food to individuals in need, providing 10.2 million meals to hungry individuals across South Dakota.
- In order to meet the hunger gap across South Dakota, Feeding South Dakota needs to provide 18 million meals.
- The value of donated food annually to Feeding South Dakota is over $18.5 million.
- Maintains a network of 350 partnering agencies statewide.
- Feeding South Dakota provided the largest percentage of food to member agency feeding programs at 47.6 percent. Thus, nearly half of all food distributed from these feeding programs came from Feeding South Dakota.

FACTS ABOUT HUNGER AND FEEDING SOUTH DAKOTA

- More than 5,200 packages of food are distributed weekly to hungry children across the state through the Backpack Program.
- 1.7 million Emergency meals are supplied by the Pantries.
- Combined, the Sioux Falls and Rapid City Pantries serve more than 90,000 people each year.
- More than 2,800 food boxes are supplied to hungry seniors monthly.
- The Mobile Food Pantries in Pierre and Rapid City provide more than 450,000 meals to 14,700 families.
- For every $1 donated, Feeding South Dakota can provide 5 meals to individuals in need. Purchasing those same five meals would cost an individual more than $10.00.
- Below is an example of Feeding South Dakota's purchasing power. A donation of one box of cereal can provide one box of cereal to serve a family in need. A donation of the $3.00 it cost to purchase that one box of cereal can provide 18 boxes of cereal to serve 18 families in need.

